

Posting Title*Head of Technical Performance Analyses*Job Description*Job summary

JFA, technical department is looking for head of technical performance analyses unit. Work closely with key stakeholders of NT's, the Analysis Department, Talent Identification, Education, and research-science staff will be primarily responsible for, budgeting, organization and leading the staff as well collection, and analysis of Individual, team and upcoming opponents' performance related to video and data analytics at matches as well leagues. The position is multi-tasking leading the unit as well working at operational level. The working hours are flexible on weekdays or weekends with international travel.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Leading the performances of the technical performance data and video analysts.
- Budgeting and administration tasks of the technical performance unit.
- Employee new strategic initiatives and recommendations to challenge and improve our status quo.
- To collect, collate, analyze, and give feedback key data to coaching staff and players in relation to JFA playing philosophy.
- Development of insightful tools & clear visuals to provide analytical support to football staff in a comprehensible, logical, and efficient manner.
- Provide statistical and video analyzing feedback to staff on a game by game and longitudinal basis.

Job skills and Qualifications

- AFC-A or higher
- Advanced English speaking and written.
- Experience working with data processing and analytics with demonstratable experience of data Analytics (ideally within elite sports)
- Bachelor in data analyses, Computer science.
- Strong communicator, connector and able to finalize duties in short timeline targets.
- Jordanian nationality

To apply for the role at the Jordan Football Association, send your CV to Careers@jfa.com.io, and remember to include the position name in the email subject line.

Good luck with your application!